GLOBAL HEALTH AS A FOUNDATION FOR WORLD PEACE: PREVENTING THE «NEXT» PANDEMIC - By Nicholas A. Robinson

There can be no peace on Earth until there is peace with the Earth. This holistic concept of peace encompasses present and future generations of human beings and all other living beings. The new coronavirus that is currently wreaking havoc and death in our societies worldwide and peoples demonstrates this reality. <https://chairepaix.hypotheses.org/1205>

THE TIME FOR SIMPLE DISCUSSIONS IS OVER By Antonio Oposa Jr.

The Earth is sick with a deadly flu. The cause is a virus that eats anything and everything, including snakes and wild bats. This virus even calls itself wise: Homo sapiens. Today, this homo virus is also very sick because another virus is spreading fast and furiously. All of a sudden, we all stop moving and, for once, we do nothing. <https://chairepaix.hypotheses.org/1150>

PEACE, TRANSITIONAL JUSTICE & ENVIRONMENTAL ISSUES IN COLOMBIA

INDIGENOUS PEOPLES & HUMAN RIGHTS EDUCATION

ATUPAMA PROJECT

The Atupama project, supported by the Normandy Chair for Peace, aims to raise awareness among students in the Normandy region about the Sapara cause, an indigenous people of the Ecuadorian and Peruvian Amazon, classified as a UNESCO intangible heritage. An educational kit is currently being prepared to be used during a future intercultural meeting between a young Sapara indigenous leader, students and the general public through a cultural exhibition in the Normandy Region. Agathe Neveu, at the origin of the project, tells the story

TENTS FOR REFUGEES THAT COLLECT RAINWATER AND STORE SOLAR ENERGIES

Abeer Seikaly, the creative thinker behind the renowned social and environmental project «Weaving a Home,» is a young Palestinian architect from Jordan working on innovative architecture, design, arts and cultural production. These refugee tents are part of an ongoing project since 2013, thought to provide shelter for displaced communities while protecting the environment. Through his work, Abeer explores how architecture can work as a tool with immediate social impact, providing refugees with housing with various amenities for a dignified and modern life. <https://chairepaix.hypotheses.org/1136>
